

FIABCI December Business Meetings 2009 Visit of Bruges, Pearl of the Middle Age

After breakfast, departure from the hotel for a complete day in Bruges, one of the most beautiful middle age cities, also called the « Venice of the North » ! During the bus trip we will relate you the history of Bruges and its rich past often called « a condensed surprise of Europe ».

During our walk in the morning we will discover the architectural wonders of Bruges :

- The « Notre Dame » church
- The City Hall
- The Virgin and the Child by Michelangelo
- The Chapel of the Holy Blood (Chapelle du Saint Sang)
- The Grand'Place
- The Beguine
- The Belfry
- The Hospital Saint Jean

After lunch in the historic heart, it's in a carriage that we will dream of the glories of the past, coloured with romantism close to the "Lake of Love".

The next moment will reveal us the secrets of Belgium's chocolate and close by we will visit a workshop of tapestry and lace as well as the manufacturing process of beer.

After some free time for individual shopping, the bus will bring us back to our hotel in Brussels.
