

FIABCI DECEMBER BUSINESS DAYS 2009 - BRUSSELS
Visit of the Magritte Museum in Brussels

One year after the works started in May 2008, the Magritte Museum in Belgium opened its doors thanks to the joint efforts of the Royal Museum of Fine Arts, the Margrette Foundation and the Suez group.

On over 2,500 m2 visitors can explore the largest collection of works of this surrealist painter.

The special feature of this collection is the fact it covers all periods of the artist. The exhibits, including the greatest masterpieces of the painter, are coming from private bequests and purchases of the Royal Museum of Fine Arts.

The Museum is located on the Place Royale where the artist worked and lived for 24 years.

Please note that due to the success of Magritte, the Museum is COMPLETELY Booked until the end of next January and THE ONLY POSSIBILITY of a visit will be for FIABCI members Saturday, December 5 thanks to Ms. Jacqueline Moens de Fernig, Past-President FIABCI Belgique.

The number of participants is limited to 100 people.

Transport from the Hotel Metropole to the Museum is organised by bus.
